Reasons and interest in applying to the collaborative master's program in Data Science:
I completed my bachelor studies in 2018 with an academic score of 9.17 out of 10. Although I was unable to pursue research or get a job as data scientists due to a lack of opportunities I still manage to learn through several online courses. I have already completed several online courses related to Statistics, several algorithms related to Data Science. Currently, I chose to gain industry knowledge by taking up full-time employment with a multinational company working as a software developer. However, I want to pursue my career as a Data Scientist. This course would help me learn a lot of concepts with deep understanding. More importantly, this would help to get me a better platform to showcase my skills and my ability. This course would boost my career and would provide me with enough opportunities to achieve my goal.
